Marmo Family Nursing Scholarship

The Marmo Family Nursing Scholarship was established to provide direct incentives for area residents accepted into an accredited nursing program, strengthen the labor pool for Beaufort Memorial Hospital and provide financial assistance to students admitted to an accredited nursing program.

The Beaufort Memorial Foundation will manage and track the distribution of scholarship funds to recipients. The Foundation will continue to accept gifts to this fund at any time.

Eligibility. Active college students admitted to an accredited nursing program who are residents of Beaufort, Jasper, or Hampton County or attend a nursing program located in Beaufort, Jasper or Hampton County.

Amount of assistance. Up to $4,000 per semester. This is a direct scholarship that will be disbursed from BMH to the scholarship recipients. Upon selection of this scholarship, the funds will be distributed each semester while the recipient is enrolled with good standing in an accredited nursing program. A maximum of five (5) recipients are selected each year to be followed through the duration of their nursing program.

Selection Committee. Selection of scholarship recipients will be accomplished through a committee with representation from the Marmo Family, Hospital Administration and the BMH Foundation.

Application Deadline and Notification: Applications will open in April and awardees will be notified in July, annually.
